AS WE HEAD INTO THE FALL SEASON...

it's time to start thinking about how to refresh your product selections for charcuterie boards, gift baskets, and holiday treats. I had the opportunity to attend the New York Fancy Food Show, one of the largest gatherings in the gourmet food industry, where over 2,300 vendors from across the globe presented thousands of new and exciting products. With over 10,000 attendees, this show is a feast for the senses, and it's the perfect place to find unique items for the upcoming holiday season.
